

The Czech Coloring Book

by HalfCzech

5 Czech pictures to color, with a fun fact on every page

This book belongs to: _____

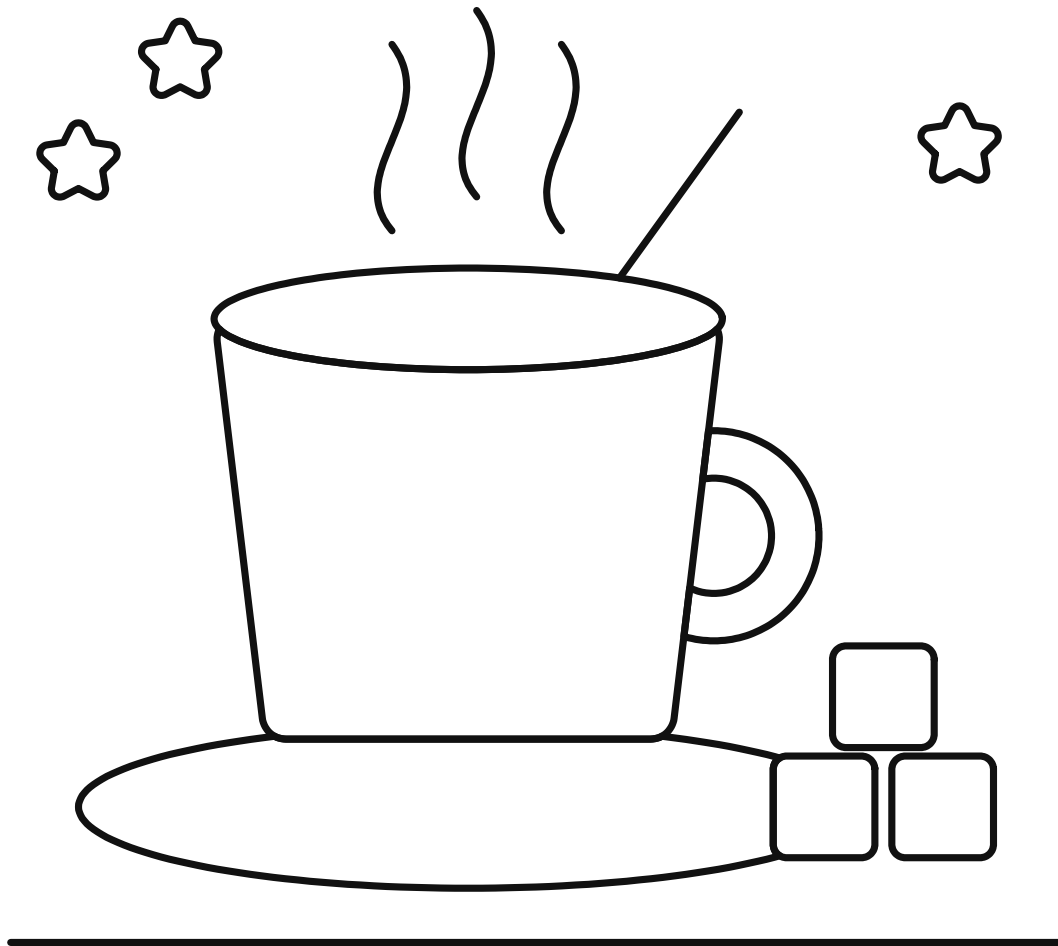

kraslice

Easter egg

Did you know? On Easter Monday, girls give boys painted eggs called kraslice.

Source: Radio Prague International

Colored by: _____

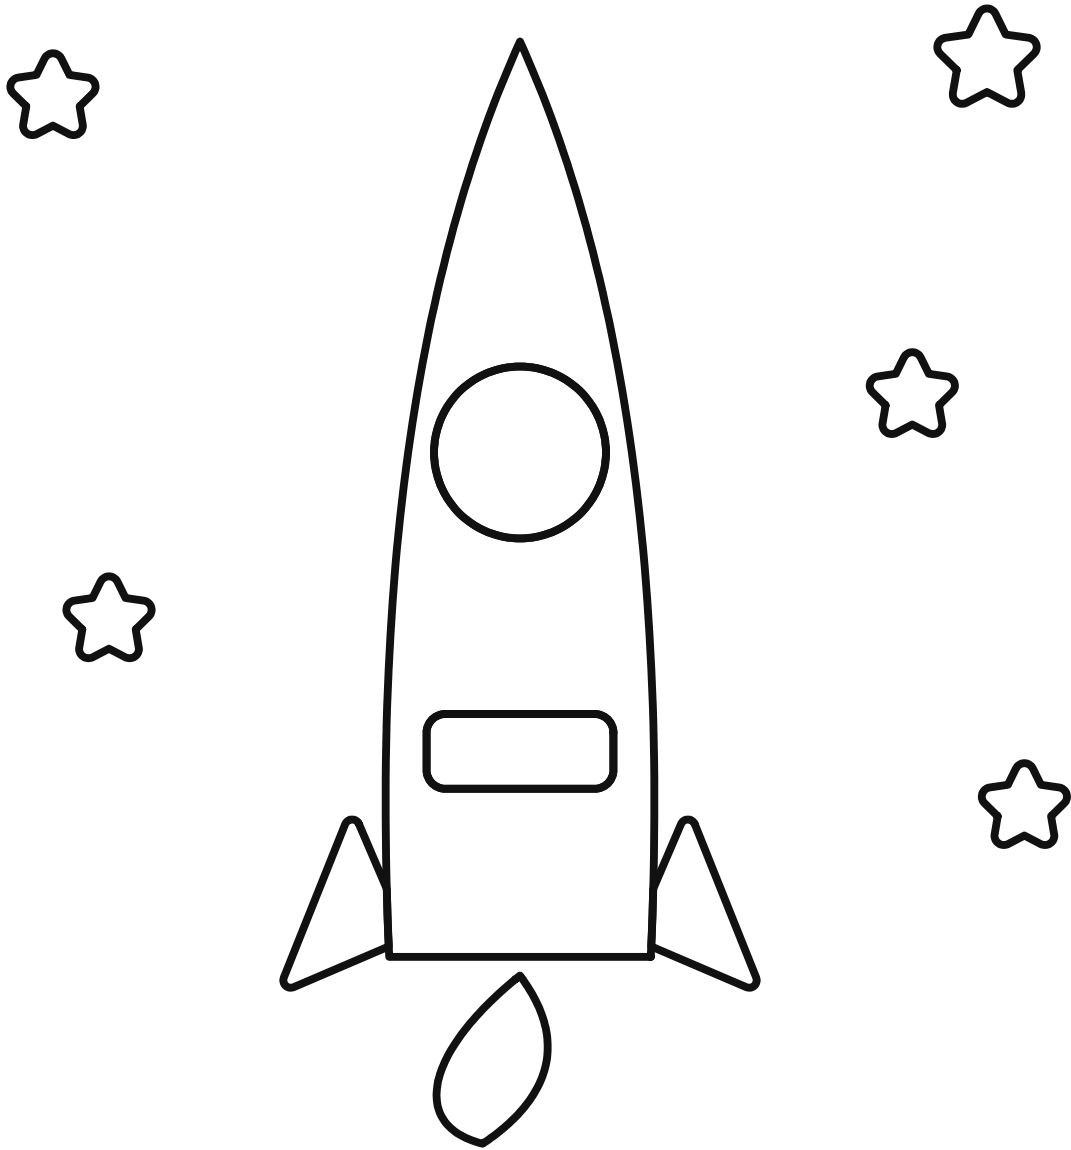

The sugar cube

Did you know? In 1843, Jakub Kryštof Rad, who ran a sugar factory in the Czech town of Dačice, got a patent for the sugar cube. The idea came from his wife Juliana, who wanted a safer way to get sugar than chopping at a big, hard sugar loaf!

Source: Radio Prague International; Goethe-Institut

Colored by: _____

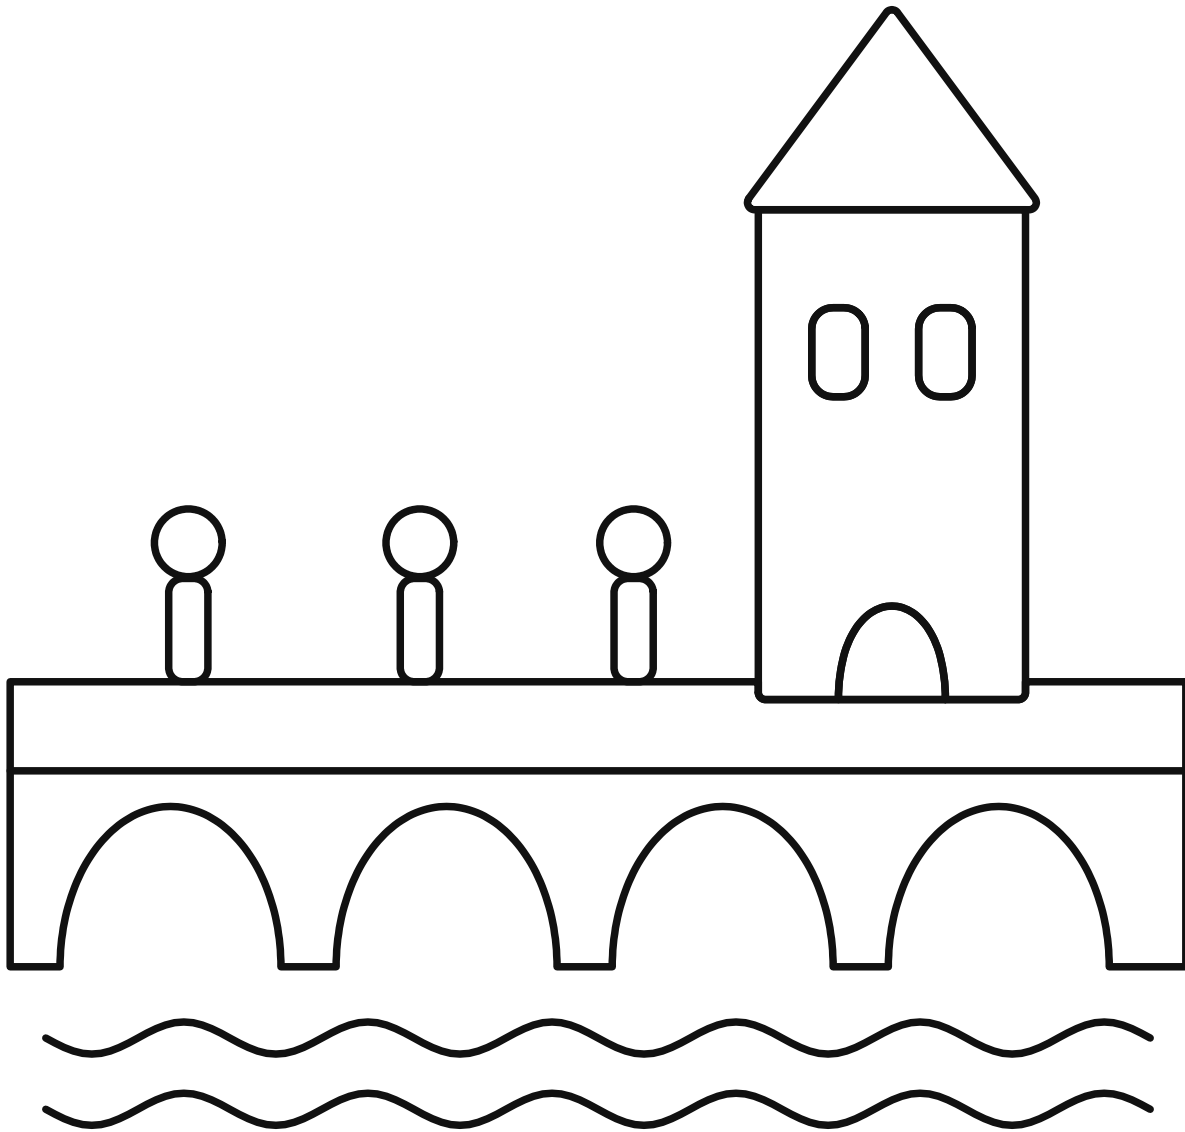

A rocket

Did you know? In 1978, Vladimír Remek flew into space. Europe's space agency calls him the first European in space!

Source: Britannica; European Commission (CORDIS)

Colored by: _____

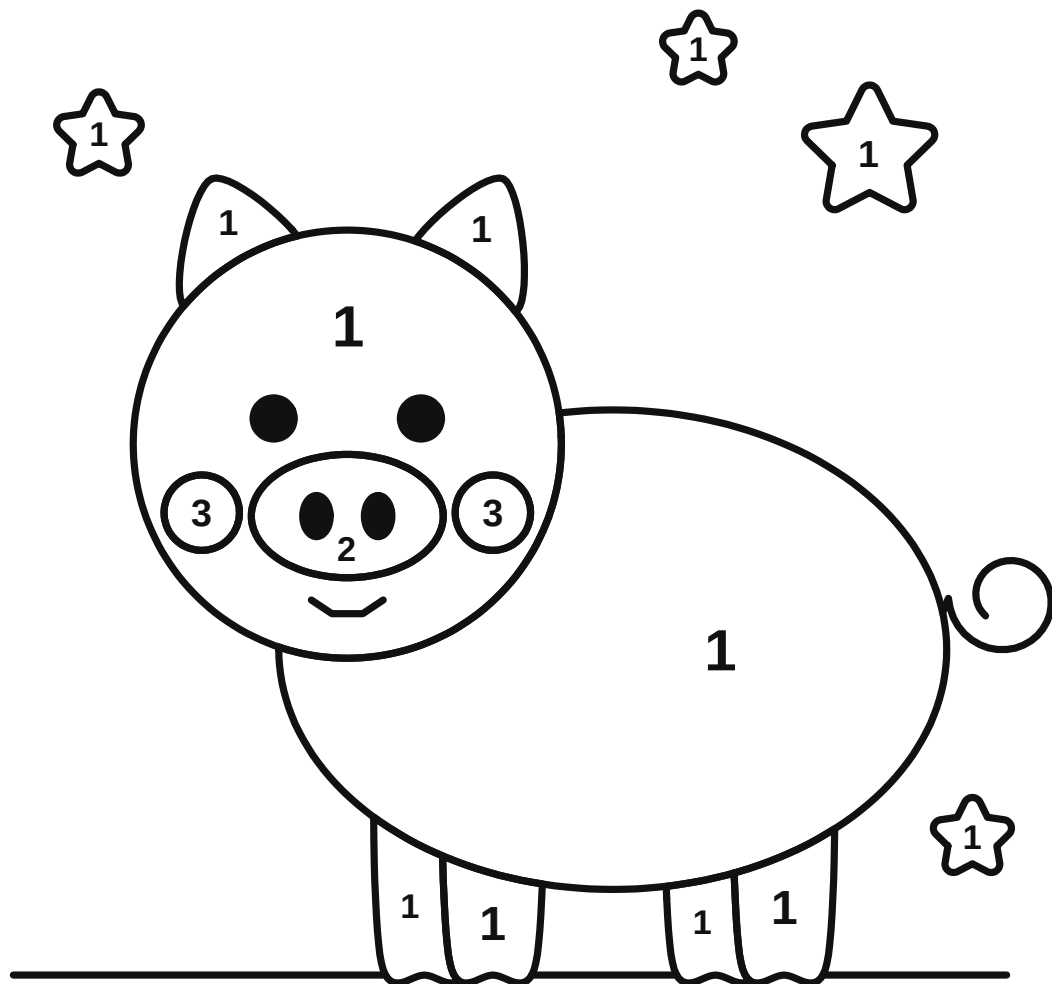

Charles Bridge

Did you know? A legend says the first stone of Charles Bridge was laid on 9 July 1357 at 5:31 in the morning. Written as numbers, that's 1-3-5-7-9-7-5-3-1. It reads the same backwards!

Source: VisitCzechia

Colored by: _____

Color by number: the golden piglet

Color each area by its number!

● 1 = Yellow ● 2 = Orange ● 3 = Pink

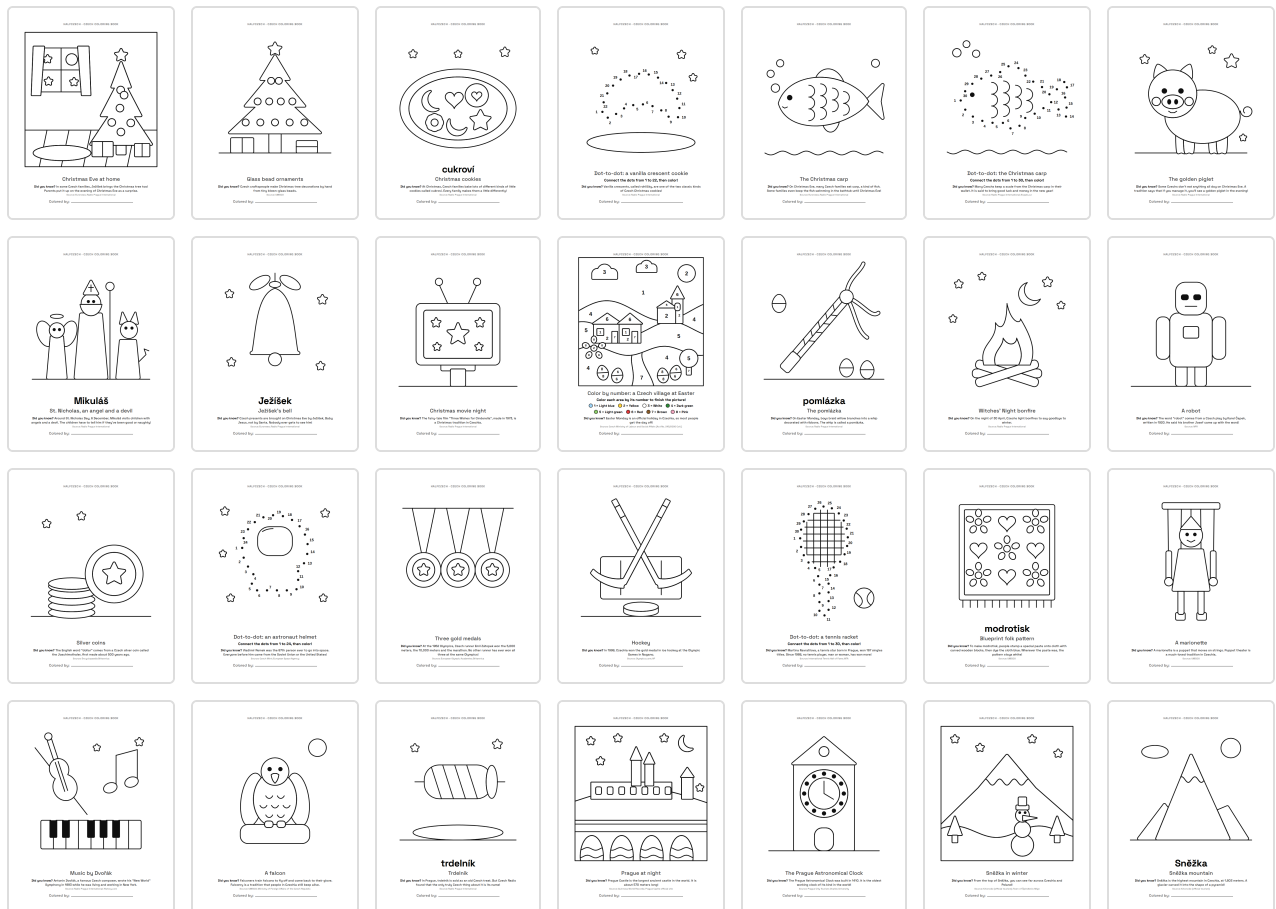

Did you know? Some Czechs don't eat anything all day on Christmas Eve. A tradition says that if you manage it, you'll see a golden piglet in the evening!

Source: Radio Prague International

Colored by: _____

Loved these? There are 28 more.

The full Czech Coloring Book has 32 pages and 4 ways to play: coloring, full-page scenes, dot-to-dot and color by number.

halfczech.com